Adult I became a Christian a few years ago.

Father I have been a Christian for many years.

Adult [Cheekily] Many many years. [Father looks irritated]

Child I am grateful to my friend Jesus; because of Him my sins are forgiven.

Adult I am grateful to my friend Jesus; He helps me day by day as I face challenges and temptations.

Father I am grateful to my friend Jesus; He has been my lifelong companion.

Child I am excited that I can call God 'Abba': – daddy, my daddy.

- Adult I get excited as I read God's word – the bible. It helps me to learn how my Father wants me to live, and is a continual source of encouragement and reassurance.
- Father I don't get excited anymore. I simply trust my Father.
- Child I know my daddy God will never let me down.
- Adult I know my father God will give me the strength to endure this world and all its temptations.
- Father I know my father God is always with me. As I approach the end of my life I am confident of His promise that I will live with Him forever.
- Child As children of God we aim..
- Adult .. not to love the world..
- Father .. which will pass away.
- Child But instead..
- Adult to love..
- Father the one who lives for ever:
- All 3 Our Father.
