By Rod

Interviewer How big is yours?

A I haven't got one.

B Mine's small.

C Mine's grande.

D Mine's extra large.

Interviewer Where do you keep yours?

A I told you, I haven't got one.

B In a box in the attic.

C In my house on the mantelpiece.

D Mine's so big it fills the whole world – and beyond.

Interviewer When do you use yours?

A Never. Like I said, I haven't got one.

B I bring it out of its box on special occasions like Christmas and Easter, and for funerals and weddings.

C I use it quite often, but mostly in the privacy of my own home; except on Sundays, of course, when it gets pride of place. I give it a good polish on Sunday morning and show it off to people.

D I use mine all the time, wherever I am. Mine is with me everywhere and always.

Interviewer How important is yours to you?

A Not at all. I haven't got one and I don't need one. Who do you think I am – some sort of weak, feeble-minded person in need of a crutch?

B At certain times I find mine very helpful. It is a real comfort to me in times of trouble. But mostly I survive quite happily without it. Although I am glad to know its there when I need it.

C I am proud of mine. I feel it adds an extra dimension to my life. It makes me a more rounded person.

D My life wouldn't have meaning without it. Mine is everything to me.
