Narrator 2 Female
3 actors 1,2,3

Male Once upon a time there were three monkeys – er.. I mean men. [Actors step forward]

Female Same thing?

Male Two of them were blind and one of them was dumb. [1 & 2 cover eyes. 3 covers mouth]

Female Surely saying 'a dumb man' is tautology?

Male When the blind ones met Jesus... [3 steps forward to become Jesus]

Female They couldn't see him.

Male But they could recognise who he was. They cried out..

Female "Have mercy on us, Son of David." [1 & 2 hold hands aloft as if crying out] And when Jesus asked them..

Male "Do you really believe I can do this?", they replied...

Female "Yes, Lord." [1 & 2 hold out hands as if asking] Jesus was so impressed he said...

Male "According to your faith will it be done to you". [3 touches eyes of 1 & 2 as if curing them of blindness]

Female And he cured them of their blindness.

Male So now they could hear, speak and see. [1 & " show delight at being able to see]

- Female But Jesus said..
- Male “See that you do not speak about it.” [Jesus gestures accordingly]
- Female That seems a bit tough, and surely everyone could see that they could see?
- Male True, and in fact just the opposite happened. They couldn’t stop themselves. They spoke about it all the time. [1 & 2 mime talking non-stop. 3 returns into line to resume his position as dumb man with hands over mouth]
- Female Unlike the man who was dumb.
- Male When he met Jesus he said..
- Female “mmmmm” [3 mimes this]
- Male But Jesus knew exactly what he needed.
- Female A new voice.
- Male And that’s exactly what he gave him. The man spoke clearly for the first time in ages. [3 mimes talking]
- Female What did he say?
- Male We don’t know.
- Female Probably something like “I reckon Israel should play 4-4-2 with Moses Rooney slotting into the pocket behind the striker. [3 explains this to 1 & 2]
- Male At this point the whole crowd joined in and said “Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel.” [1 & 2 act as crowd showing amazement]
- Female Surely not! Their football team must have played 4-4-2- before. It’s not exactly rocket science.
- Male No, they meant Jesus enabling the dumb man to speak.
- Female Oh, right. I suppose that is quite amazing. And to go with restoring the sight to those two blind men. No wonder everyone was so excited. [1,2 & 3 show excitement]

- Male Everyone that is, except the Pharisees. They talked a different talk. [1,2 & 3 huddle together as Pharisees looking unhappy]
- Female Miserable lot. What did they say?
- Male “It is by the prince of demons that he casts out demons.”
- Female What does that mean?
- Male It means that they thought He was not really the Son of God.
- Female I feel sorry for them.
- Male Yes, they missed out. [1,2,3 back in line]
- Female They failed to SEE Jesus for who he was. [1 puts hands to eyes]
- Male They failed to HEAR his words of truth and hope. [2 puts hands over ears]
- Female And they could not join in and SPEAK the praises of God’s glorious mighty saviour. [3 puts hands over mouth]
- Male We don’t want to be like the Pharisees.
- Female No, we want to SEE Jesus. [1 removes hands from eyes and holds aloft]
- Male We want to HEAR his words. [2 removes hands from ears and holds aloft]
- Female And we want to SPEAK about Him to our friends. [3 removes hands from mouth and holds aloft]
- ALL Hallelujah, Amen!
